Owner declares shooting range a 'MUSLIM FREE ZONE';
explains why she did.....

Jan Morgan is facing controversy after declaring her business a "Muslim free zone" Sunday.

The owner of Gun Cave Indoor Shooting Range in Hot Springs, Arkansas. has drawn a line in the sand, and while critics will get angry they should read her reasons why.

After the recent influx of violence perpetuated by self-proclaimed Islamists, Morgan began to study the religion and discovered "109 verses commanding hate, murder and terror against all human beings who refuse to submit or convert to Islam."

On her website, Jan Morgan Media, Morgan, an investigative journalist and certified NRA gun instructor, explained that her decision was made based on facts.

Read her ten-point reasoning that has already provoked controversy:

I officially declare my business, The Gun Cave Indoor Shooting Range, a MUSLIM FREE ZONE.....

1) The Koran, which I have read and studied thoroughly and (which all muslims align themselves with), contains 109 verses commanding hate, murder and terror against all human beings who refuse to submit or convert to Islam. Read those verses of violence here.
